

A Country Christmas

Join us for two days of music, dancing, vendor products, Christmas shopping, documentary viewing and timber branding. Meet the producer of the documentary and interview with his staff to be cast in his upcoming documentary of Casey Tibbs!

Friday, December 13 at AmericInn in Fort Pierre:

8pm-midnight: Western Music provided by Hidden Timber
Cash bar

Saturday, December 14 at the Casey Tibbs Rodeo Center in Fort Pierre:

10 am: Doors open

11am to 4pm: Timber Branding Party (branding $200–weather permitting)

Join the hundreds of other brands that have been permanently burned into the Rodeo Center timbers! We'll have the current on for the electric brands and the fire cauldron heated up for the iron brands. (weather permitting).

11am to 4pm: Vendor products & samples - Get your Christmas shopping done and support local area artisans! Products include: South Dakota made desserts, beauty products, "The Buffalo King" DVD's, holiday items, jewelry, sculpture garden bricks and gift certificates, bronze statues, Native American & western decor, jewelry and accessories.

11:30 am and 2:00 pm: "The Buffalo King" Documentary Showtimes
("The Buffalo King is a richly textured film that follows James (Scotty) Philip from his meager upbringing to his success in saving the American bison from extinction. An original preservationist in the 1890s, he disdained the wonton slaughter of buffalo and used this dark moment in history as a driving force for something greater).

The producer won 1st place for this film in the documentary division at the South Dakota Film Festival.
